BENJAMIN MANDELMAN NAMED DEPUTY DIRECTOR IN THE NLRB'S MILWAUKEE, WI REGIONAL OFFICE

Ronald Meisburg, General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, announced today the appointment of Benjamin Mandelman as Deputy Director in the Agency's Regional Office in Milwaukee, WI (Region 30). In his new position, Mr. Mandelman will assist Regional Director Irving E. Gottschalk in enforcing the National Labor Relations Act in Wisconsin and certain counties in Michigan.

The NLRB investigates and remedies unfair labor practices and conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg remarked:

Ben Mandelman's extensive litigation experience and his dedication to the law make him highly qualified to serve as Deputy Director. His fine analytical skills and commitment to public service will serve him well as he continues the tradition of excellence in the Milwaukee Regional Office.

A native of Milwaukee, Mr. Mandelman majored in economics at the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee; he received his B.A. degree in 1970. He attended the University of Wisconsin Law School and earned his J.D. in 1973. Upon graduation, Mr. Mandelman began his career with the Board as a trial attorney in the Milwaukee Regional Office. He was appointed Deputy Regional Attorney in 1999, and has been serving as Acting Regional Attorney since 2004. He is the former Chair of the Labor and Employment Law Section of the State Bar of Wisconsin.
